THE BLIND WELFARE STORY

It was during the depression years of the 1930's that the blind of South Australia formed their own organisation - the Blind Welfare Association (BWA). For over 75 years the Association has continued to provide a range of services for the blind.

BWA's focus is to promote and assist our members in maintaining their independence and individual lifestyles.

HOW CAN I BECOME A VOLUNTEER FOR BWA?

It's easy! If you have the time, the motivation and the aspiration to make a difference you can become a volunteer. Our volunteers come from many different backgrounds and they are all part of a great team.

Just call our Volunteer Officer on 8367 6088 or email: volunteers@blindwelfare.org.au

Blind Welfare's Volunteer Officer can answer all your questions and arrange an interview with you at your convenience.

HOW OFTEN DOES A VOLUNTEER WORK?

It's entirely up to you, some have regular times, while others are available at call. Any time that you can give is greatly appreciated and this is discussed between you and our Volunteer Officer. We understand that you may have other commitments and from time to time want a break. Any time that you give is good time for BWA.
